

I must go in.
The fog is rising.

-Emily Elizabeth Dickinson

Double, double
toil and trouble;
Fire burn and
cauldron bubble.

-William Shakespeare

Die, my dear?
Why that's the last thing I'll do!

-Groucho Marx

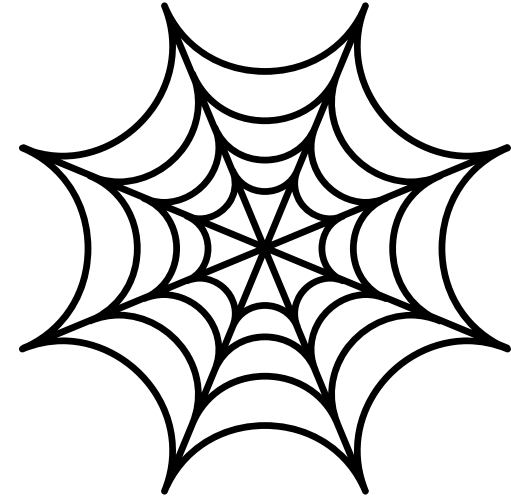

Never trust
anything that can think for itself if you can't see where it keeps its brain.

-J.K Rowling

There are nights
when the wolves
are silent and only the moon
howls.

-George Carlin

I'll bet living in a nudist colony takes all the fun out of Halloween.
